Board Member Report

Ms. Fischer reported that she will be going to Tallahassee to meet with legislators and that the legislative priorities have been adopted. Ms. Fischer will bring a proposal requesting funding for the State for the Grow Your Own Teacher Scholarship.

Ms. Fischer discussed training in restorative practices and that most schools who received the training had lower in and out-of-school suspensions. The District's three-year plan is to have all schools receive the restorative training.

Ms. Fischer informed the committee that there will be a Red Ribbon celebration on Wednesday, October 26, 2016.

New Business

Dr. Pete Bohatch, Director, Student Services and Ken Dobson, Director, Safety and Security presented Focus Area 3: Ensure a Safe and Healthy Environment for All. Ms. Shiner-Nunes asked that the committee consider a recommendation in bringing city police officers back into schools as School Resource Officers. Ms. Shiner-Nunes also asked that the Safety Committee consider a recommendation to include PTO or other parent members to sit on school safety committees. Ms. Traiger asked for data related to dress code policy and enforcement (specifically uniforms) consistency across District by level and by zone. Ms. Shiner-Nunes asked if students are provided with CPR/AED training.
