There are still many students who have overdue books from last year when we didn't come back to school after spring break. Put the overdue books into your backpack when you get home and then bring them to school. You can place the books in your ELA teacher's return bin, or you can return them through the drop slot at the circulation desk in the library.

FSA Testing is tomorrow! Be sure to have your working headphones ready!

Students, do you like to learn about new and old cultures? You have a need to go out and discover new places? Does researching artifacts and ruins appeal to you? The social studies honor society is meeting this thursday, April 15th. If you wish to attend to become a member, please visit the social studies honor society's google classroom. The code is t3xqzqp

Keep TOMS the safest it can be! If you see or hear something troubling, let your teacher/administration know!

In weather news, be careful today when it rains cats and dogs.. You have to be careful not to step in a poodle.

6th Graders- We have started to accept applications for the AVID program next year. AVID stands for Advancement Via Individual Determination. It is an elective class about college and career readiness and will help support you in your academic classes. You can find the applications in your Social Studies google classroom. If you have any questions you can talk to Mrs. Brown.

This weekend TOMS's very own Sebastian Canizares took 2nd place in the category for Original Oratory at the Florida speech and debate state championships! A reminder this is a memorized ten-minute, completely original speech. Sebastian was allowed to update his previous speech, "The Ultimate Crime," and re-film it.

THE ULTIMATE CRIME

Attention Track & Field Athletes: This week is the last week for track. If you are a top finisher or won an event, you MUST be present to win your t-shirt or prize. We will have final races if needed and then our Award Ceremony. Check Google Classroom to see where you stand and who the leaders are!
